

Distribution Announcement

Henley Designs Ltd. to act as agent for Tivoli Audio in the UK Market

Didcot, Oxfordshire – September, 2012

Henley Designs are delighted to announce a new agency agreement with Tivoli Audio for their coveted range of stylish and great-sounding radios and music systems. As sole UK distributor for a wide range of popular brands from around the world, Henley Designs are thrilled to add Tivoli Audio to their already impressive portfolio. Managing Director, Laurence Armstrong, said of the new agreement:

“We’re delighted to be supporting Tivoli Audio’s re-introduction into some of the UK’s finest retailers. Tivoli is a brand we’ve known and respected for a long time; they have a reputation for superior design and sound characteristics and the current range of models are a step above everything else out there at the moment. We believe that together we can have a long and successful relationship.”

Peta Austin, Tivoli Audio General Manager UK, added:

“I am delighted to announce Tivoli Audio’s partnership with Henley Designs, and this new agreement supports retail initiatives we have established in the UK over the past year. Furthermore, Henley Designs is the first UK distributor to benefit from our new, and vast, Netherlands-based stock centre. Consequently, Laurence and his team will have 24/7 access to the entire Tivoli Audio range, including colours and finishes never previously brought into the UK.”

From September 2012, Henley Designs will be offering the whole Tivoli Audio range to an exclusive selection of hi-fi outlets that are committed to supporting the impressive variety of equipment. From the stylish and convenient Model One up to the stunning new Bluetooth collection, and incorporating all your necessary accessories in-between – including CD Players, iPod docks, headphones and subwoofers – Tivoli has something for anyone who is looking to introduce high-quality audio into their home in an unobtrusive and aesthetically pleasing way.

Henley Designs began their agency announcement by exhibiting a selection of the Tivoli range at the National Audio Show on September 22nd and 23rd, 2012. The response throughout the weekend was incredibly positive from press and end-customers alike.
